Ms. Harriet Miers
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, DC

Dear Madam:

Attached herewith are indictments returned by the International Commission of Inquiry on Crimes Against Humanity Committed by the Bush Administration of the United States. Named in the indictments are President George W. Bush, Vice President Richard Cheney, and a number of members of the Executive Branch of government and the Armed Forces.

Additionally attached are the Charter of the Commission and its Standards for Judgment. For your information we have also attached the letter to UN Secretary-General Kofi Anan from an important list of British signers alleging similar violations of international law.

The Commission will sit in New York on January 20-22 to hear testimony regarding the charges detailed in these indictments. The hearings will be held at The Riverside Church and the Columbia University Law School. Further details are available on the Commission web site www.bushcommission.org.

As set forth in the Commission's Charter, you are invited to submit evidence in exculpation or mitigation by contacting the Commission prior to the January 20-22 hearings.

Sincerely yours,

Janet Yip
Secretary to the Commission
